

Who are we?

Poljoprivredno šumarska škola Vinkovci, Croatia
Secondary school, Regional Centre of Competence and an eco school with modern approaches to teaching farming.

Osmangazi İlçe Millî Eğitim Müdürlüğü, Türkiye
Local body managing a wide network of schools and providing a practice school for the activities.

Colegiul "Tara Barsei" Prejmer, Romania
High-capacity agricultural school providing expertise in curriculum creation, case pools and eTwinning projects.

Bilecik Seyh Edebali University, Türkiye
Experts in environmental impact assessment and sustainability.

University of Belgrade, Serbia
Experts in food production, offer courses on innovative agricultural and livestock practices.

Slovenská poľnohospodárska univerzita v Nitre, Slovakia
Experts in automation systems and technology use in agriculture and animal husbandry.

University J. J. Strossmayer in Osijek, Faculty of Agrobiotechnical Sciences, Croatia
Experts in sustainable animal production.

What are our objectives?

To contribute to EU targets on reducing greenhouse gas emissions, food safety and farm-to-fork strategy.

To increase the knowledge and skill levels of students and technicians by developing educational materials focused on sustainable livestock and food production.

To prepare students for the job market in agricultural vocational high schools.

To ensure the adaptation of the enterprises to the new conditions by providing sustainability specialist workforce to the enterprises.

What are our results?

1

E-learning platform

2

Agricultural high school elective curriculum in sustainable animal husbandry

3

Sustainable livestock case pool

4

Digital flashcards mobile application